About this Workbook

This workbook is designed to offer experiences rooted in well-being. The workbook uses the RISE: Wellness & Resilience concepts to offer opportunities to enhance your resilience and wellness. Each page has a prompt in addition to a reflection section. Use the reflection section to ask yourself the following questions.

- What did the activity feel like?
- What meaning did the activity give you?
- How did the activity influence your mood or emotions?
- What thoughts did the activity illicit?
- Is the activity something you would be willing to try again?
- Could you build the activity into your daily habits?
